Admitting a State

No steps for admitting a state into the Union have been fixed, but a substantially uniform procedure has grown up. Ordinarily the process is set in motion by the people of the territory sending a petition to congress for admission as a state. If this is regarded with favor, congress passes an enabling act, authorizing the territorial officials to arrange for a popularly elected convention to frame a state constitution. After the constitution is prepared it is submitted to the people and, if adopted, is sent to congress for approval. If it is accepted, a resolution is passed declaring the territory a state.

Trim for Mahogany

For more effective decor traditional Eighteenth century mahogany may be trimmed with a number of woods, tulipwood, amaranth, rosewood, violetwood and boxwood.

First Mace

The mace was provided for by a resolution adopted by the house during the first congress on April 14, 1789. The first mace used by the house was destroyed by fire when the British burned the Capitol in 1814. From that time until 1842 a mace of painted wood served. In that year the present mace was made in reproduction of the original. It is over three feet in height and consists of a bundle of ebony rods, representing the states, bound with a band of silver in imitation of the fasces. From the center protrudes the stem of a silver globe surmounted by a silver eagle with outspread wings.

Gold Produced Here

Of the 371,165,000 fine ounces of gold produced in the world in 1938, only about 4,245,400 ounces came from continental United States.

NOW PLAYING AT DALY CITY THEATRE

EXCITING is the word for this threesome, who are starred in the new 20th Century-Fox hit, "Hot Spot," which is now playing at the Daly City theatre. Betty Grable, Vic Mature and Carole Landis make a great triumvirate—who, critics agree, are three of the best of Hollywood's younger stars.

Ruth Draper Coming To Curran

Ruth Draper, described by Alexander Woollcott as "The Magic Woman," comes to the Curran for one week beginning Monday night, February 9, in a repertoire of her monologues that have made this amazing woman famous throughout the entire world.

She is a linguist and it is her beautiful clear diction that has always fascinated her English audiences. It is worthy to note that while she was in Australia the school authorities closed the high schools and colleges at various times to permit the students to witness her performance.

Miss Draper's repertoire during her week's stay in San Francisco will be as follows: Monday and Tuesday nights, "In County Kerry," "The Actress," "Doctors and Diets," "In a Church in Italy;" Wednesday matinee, "At a Children's Party in Philadelphia," "On The Porch in a Maine Coast Village," "Showing the Garden," "A Dalmatian Peasant in the Hall of a New Hospital," "In a Railway Station on the Western Plains;" Wednesday and Saturday nights, "Three Generations in a Court of Domestic Relations," "Three Breakfasts," "A Class in Greek Poise," "The Italian Lesson," "A Scottish Immigrant at Ellis Island;" Thursday and Friday nights, "Opening a Bazaar," "Three Women and Mr. Clifford," "On a Porch in a Maine Coast Village," "In a Church in Italy;" Saturday matinee, "The Italian Lesson," "A Dalmatian Peasant in the Hall of a New York Hospital," "A Class in Greek Poise," "In a Church in Italy."

Sausage Dishes are rich in VITAMIN B

Dorothy Greig

IT'S always wonderful to discover that a dish that's good for us is a pleasure treat, too. Like these sausage pies, for instance. Pork, the nutrition experts tell us, is one of our richest sources of Vitamin B, the vitamin that helps keep morale high and nerves steady. It's an important vitamin indeed in these war wracked days.

That's why our little pork sausage pies are good for us. But when we bite through their tender biscuit crust we'll probably forget that and enjoy them for the delicious morsels they are. With them we serve a smooth and lavish mushroom sauce made of condensed cream of mushroom soup.

Individual Sausage Pies with Mushroom Sauce

1 pound sausage
4 cups prepared biscuit flour
1 cup milk (approximately)

Shape the sausage into flat individual cakes, then cook slowly until browned on both sides, but not thoroughly cooked because sausage will continue cooking in oven.

Mix the milk with the prepared biscuit flour, roll out ¼ inch thick. Cut with round cutter about 4 inches in diameter. Place sausage cakes on the dough, brush edges of dough with milk. Cover each sausage with second piece of dough which has been perforated so steam may escape. Press edges together and bake in a hot oven, 450° F., for 10-15 minutes or until golden brown. Serves 4-5.

The Sauce:

1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup milk

Stir the milk into the cream of mushroom soup. Heat and serve over the Sausage Pies. Makes 1¾ cups.

It's a Fact

Strange things happen to food at high altitudes. In an airliner 10,000 feet up, a three-minute egg takes 12 minutes to boil, an ordinary cake collapses and soup in a regular vacuum bottle boils and blows the cork out.

Rio Grande Omelet

Dorothy Greig

FRESH crusty rolls, a dish of raw carrot strips and celery stalks crisped in ice water, and this Rio Grande omelet make the main course of just about as zestful a meal as anyone could wish. It's a meal, too, that can be whisked together with little trouble—important in these days when war work takes so much of our time. A satisfying dessert to such a meal is apple sauce pressed through a sieve until smooth, then flavored with nutmeg and served with cream. But now for the omelet—this is the way to make it:

The Sauce for it:

2 tablespoons onions, chopped
1 tablespoon green pepper, chopped
2 tablespoons butter
1 can condensed tomato soup
½ cup mushrooms, cooked

Sauté the chopped onion and green pepper in the butter until soft, but not brown. Then add the condensed tomato soup and the ½ cup cooked mushrooms.

The Omelet:

6 eggs
½ teaspoon salt
Pinch of pepper
3 tablespoons water
2 tablespoons butter

Beat the eggs until well mixed; then add seasonings and water and mix again. Melt the butter in a pan and place over a moderate flame. Pour eggs in pan and as the omelet cooks, lift the edges and tip the pan so that the uncooked egg flows under the cooked portion of the omelet. When bottom is browned, put three tablespoons of the sauce in the omelet and fold over or roll. Serve omelet on a platter or plate and put more sauce over or around it. Serves 3-4.

Checkup on Lighting

Because shorter days mean that most workers have to drive home after sunset, motorists are urged to give special attention to the efficiency of their lighting equipment. Headlights should be checked to comply with the law and tail lights should be inspected to see that they are in working order and are bright enough to be visible at a distance of 500 feet. Motorists should also remember that they are now required by law to use the lower headlight beams when coming within 500 feet of an approaching car.

Chief Source of Revenue

Chief source of revenue in the Bahamas are the tourist trade, sponge growing, sisal cultivations and the production of straw hats and baskets from this plant. Agriculture is rapidly being developed and there is an increasing production of jewelry from tortoise-shell and sea-shells.

Civilian air raid spotters will have no difficulty distinguishing Axis planes from those of the United Nations if they memorize the markings illustrated above. American and British planes have designs of red, white and blue, and Russia has a red star. Watchers on the southern border occasionally may see the red triangle of Mexico. Axis raiders are easily spotted through the familiar black cross and swastika of Germany, the round red rising sun emblem of Japan and the Roman fasces insignia borne by Italian planes.

Colored Fish

The marine gardens off the coast of Nassau are famous for their beautifully colored fish and strange but lovely undersea formations of coral which can be viewed through the crystal-clear waters from glass-bottomed boats which make regular trips from Prince George's Wharf.

My Week

RURAL PEOPLE AND RATIONING

Recently I attended a dinner given by Dr. Louise Stanley of the bureau of home economics in the department of agriculture for the members of the conference on extension services. This conference is a yearly event and people come to it from many states. This year some of them came from Wyoming and many midwestern states.

Miss McGeachy of the British embassy spoke on some of the problems confronting rural women in England. I asked her to tell about her plan for rationing clothes, since I was sure that these were the people who would really be able to appreciate the ingenuity which turns candlewick bedspreads into fashionable evening coats.

Of course, their objective in rationing clothes was to put more workers into defense industries and fewer into producing consumer goods, and to preserve certain materials for vital war needs.

We may find ourselves doing the same thing. Miss McGeachy's remark, that it was only a hardship on people who had no margin of supplies in their homes, reminded me of something said by an Englishwoman, who came to see me a few days ago. Extra coupons, she said, were given to people who were bombed out or lost all their possessions in a fire.

However, even with extra coupons they could not hope to supply themselves with an adequate amount of clothing. One pair of shoes, two dresses, three pairs of stockings, and one set of underclothes is all the usual coupon will buy for about a year. Men are worse off, because their clothes are sold according to weight and weigh more than women's.

I always feel that rural people are better prepared to meet these adjustments than urban people, because in cities it is easier to buy and very little thought is given to making up new materials or making over old garments at home, a practice which still prevails in many country families.

LATIN-AMERICAN FAIR

In New York city one evening, I went to a very charming dinner, given before the opening of Macy's Latin-American fair. Even during the dinner, the stage was set, for we were delightfully entertained with music and dancing, performed by artists from our neighboring republics.

At the fair, I could not help but be impressed by the architecture of the buildings and the charming arrangements of flowers and merchandise. There will be music and dancing and food served during this exhibition. You can buy groceries, fruits and handwork as they come from these neighbors of ours. Their designs and skills are also adapted to modern needs. Some of the leather work and rugs, and much of the glass and pottery, make you want

After I left the fair, I stopped for a minute at a weekly dance given by Miss Anne Morgan's committee at the Henry Hudson hotel. Here, a crowd of boys in uniform, belonging to both services, were having a good time with some very charming girls.

On my arrival, they released some balloons from the balconies and I was told the boys and girls caught these. In two of them, lucky numbers were found, which entitled a boy and girl to a prize. I presented these prizes, but the boy who found the lucky number for the girl's prize, had lost his girl, so we had to send him scurrying, box in hand, to find her in the crowd.

Grandma's Cakes Live

By Frances Lee Barton

GRANDMA doted much on spice,

Ginger, nutmeg, cloves and mace,
Each spice had its proper place.

Spice cakes melted in the mouth

Why not have such joy today? Here's a cake made Grandma's way:

Grandma's Spice Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ¼ teaspoon salt; ¼ teaspoon ginger; ¼ teaspoon mace; ½ teaspoon allspice; ½ teaspoon nutmeg; ¾ teaspoon cloves; ¾ teaspoon cinnamon; ½ cup butter or other shortening; 1 cup sugar; 2 eggs, unbeaten; 2 tablespoons molasses; ¾ cup milk.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and spices, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Add molasses and mix thoroughly. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375° F.) 20 to 25 minutes, or until done.

"Hot Spot" Now Playing At D. C. Theatre

Five men went for her in a big way . . . yet they all had reasons for wanting her out of the way. That is the background of the year's most exciting mystery drama, 20th Century-Fox's "Hot Spot," which is now playing at the Daly City theatre.

Hollywood's three most thrilling personalities, Betty Grable, Victor Mature and Carole Landis, have the leading roles in this story of the girl who was taken out of the hash house and made the darling of cafe society.

Carole, despite her sister Betty's protest, agrees to let herself be glamorized by Mature, a promoter, Alan Mowbray, a well-known actor, and Allyn Joslyn, a leading columnist. After she signs a Hollywood contract without her backers' consent, she is found murdered.

Laird Cregar, the detective placed in charge of the crime, seems more interested in putting the finger on Mature than finding the real murderer, especially since most of the clues point to him. The mystery is deepened even more when Betty falls in love with Vic and holds out evidence which makes him look even more guilty.

"Hot Spot" has Victor Mature in his first screen role since his hit on the Broadway stage in "Lady in the Dark." Betty and Carole recreate the sister team which received so much popular and critical acclaim for their performance in "Moon Over Miami."

Companion feature on the current bill is "Two Latins From Manhattan," with Joan Davis and Jinx Falkenburg.

Longest Single Set

At the Davis Cup matches, held at the West Side Tennis club in New York in 1914, McLoughlin of the United States defeated Brookes of Australia by a score of 17 to 15, the longest singles set ever to be played in one of these completed matches.

Say It With Sauce

By Frances Lee Barton

UNDOUBTEDLY that ice cream, pudding or cake you intend making will be very delicious and relished by all in your home. But your compliments will be doubled if you cover the dessert with Chocolate Sundae Sauce. It is simple to make. Requires but four ingredients, and about eight minutes of your time.

By the way, this sauce would be excellent to use for that party you may be planning.

Chocolate Sundae Sauce

2½ squares unsweetened chocolate; ½ cup water; ¾ cup sugar; dash of salt.

Add chocolate to water in small saucepan, bring to a boil, and cook gently 4 minutes, stirring constantly. Add sugar and salt, and boil 4 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Serve hot or cold on ice cream, puddings, or cake. Makes 1 cup sauce.

This sauce may be kept in an air-tight container in refrigerator and used as a syrup base for hot chocolate drinks.

License Drive

In an effort to lock the barn before the horse is stolen, Michigan plans to stiffen driver's license requirements under a program worked out by state authorities in co-operation with safety and law enforcement agencies. More difficult tests will be given applicants for licenses under the new plan and a series of institutes will be held throughout the state to instruct license examiners in conducting the tests.

One of Its Kind

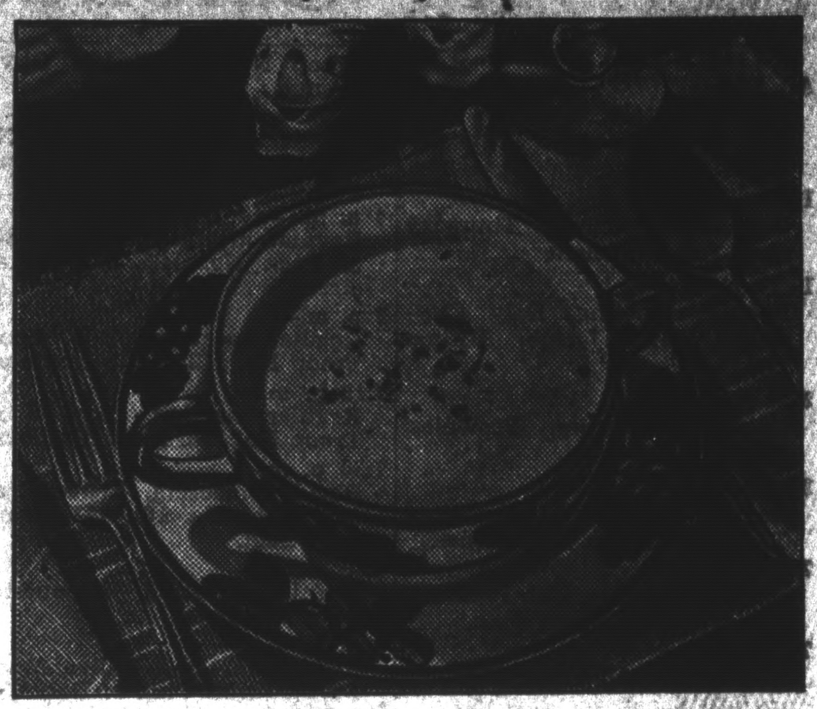
Los Angeles, Calif., lays claim to what is probably the only marriage clinic in this country, probably in the world. It is the Institute of Family Relations with Dr. Paul Popenoe, one of the first ranking social eugenists in the nation, as general director. The institution is supported in part by generous donors who are interested in the promotion of social service. The institute is particularly proud of its premarital service, which is offered to those about to wed who want help in making their marriage a success. Every couple who have taken this service before marriage are still married, so far as is known.

Child Bearing Death Rate

The death rate from child-bearing among mothers in the United States is now four out of a thousand. This is a higher rate than in most European countries, but lower than it was several years ago in this country.

DEEP CREAM CURRY SOUP

by Dorothy Greig



AN odd, delightful soup stirs guests to their sparkling best and is happy beginning indeed to the meal.

Such a soup is Deep Cream Curry Soup. It is deliciously unusual, a soup to enhance the reputation of any hostess. And when people ask about it there's no need to explain that it is simplicity itself to make—unless, of course, you can't resist the urge to pass on the recipe. You will notice that condensed consommé is the base—the chief reason the soup is easy to make.

1 can condensed consommé
½ cup water
3 tablespoons apple butter
½ cup heavy cream, heated
½ teaspoon curry
½ teaspoon lemon juice

To the consommé, add the water and apple butter. Heat and stir the soup mixture. Then add the hot heavy cream and the ½ teaspoon curry mixed with a little of the soup. Remove from the fire, add the lemon juice and serve immediately. Serves 3-4.

'Breaking' Into Movies

Two husky young men of 16 and 17 have been visiting all the studios in Hollywood by a simple trick. They buy some lumber—usually just one long board—and carry it in one of the side or rear gates. Once on a lot they're able to walk around as long as they like, but they have to leave the lumber there when they go home. The way they were discovered was by nearly being arrested for trying to carry their own board out of a studio.

Four Flags Flew

The State of Delaware has the distinction of having had the flags of four nations floating over its soil at various times; namely, The Netherlands, Sweden, Great Britain and the United States of America.

Speed of Antelopes

Antelopes have been known to attain a speed estimated at 60 miles an hour.

First In Food

—By Frances Lee Barton—

OUR immortal president, George Washington, has oft been referred to as first in war; first in peace; and first in the hearts of his countrymen. Let us pay tribute to him on his birthday by naming the following cake in his honor:

Washington's Birthday Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; ⅔ cup butter or other shortening; 1½ cups sugar; 3 eggs; ¾ cup milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Beat eggs until very thick and light; add to creamed mixture and beat well. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven. (375° F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Fold 12 chopped maraschino cherries into ½ cup sweetened whipped cream and spread between layers. Spread ½ cup sweetened whipped cream on top of cake. Decorate with candy hatchets or maraschino cherry halves.
